Support a Bon Monk

Give Sponsorship Support or Donate to Menri Bon Monks

Monasticism has always been the bedrock of Tibetan culture. The several hundred monks who make up its community are indispensable to Menri's survival. They maintain the large monastery complex itself as well as all the rituals and practices of their Bon lineage. Their work ensures the continuation of a vibrant and relevant system that has only recently been discovered by the modern world. While many kind people are moved to help and sponsor Bon children, there is less awareness of the importance of the great work and sacrifices made by the monks of Menri. Giving Sponsorship Support or Donating to a Bon Monk is an invaluable contribution to the continuity and future of Bon. Please give whatever you can!
